

Library Monthly

October 2020

YOUR PASSPORT TO READING

Libraries Week

5-10
OCTOBER 2020

#librariesweek

Celebrate Libraries week, visit the school library and check out one of our new books! Look out for our book displays for all the best new titles.

#ExpressYourShelf

Mental health issues can affect anyone and for anyone struggling during this difficult time, we have lots of self help guides and books to support you in the library.

Search the catalogue or ask a member of staff if you would like to borrow one.

Black History month highlights British Black History and celebrates the achievements and contribution to society as well as those who fought for equality. We have a recommended reading list of some of the best books by BAME authors that we have in the library.

#BlackHistoryMonth

Author of the Month

Malorie Blackman

Malorie Blackman OBE is best known for her trilogy Noughts and Crosses but has written over 60 books for children and young adults. We would recommend Pig Heart Boy and Cloud Busting. Malorie was Children's Laureate from 2013 to 2015 during her time as laureate she set up the first YA Literature Convention and Project /remix to support creative writing.

'Reading is an exercise in empathy; an exercise in walking in someone else's shoes for a while. -Malorie Blackman Dyslexia week 5-11th October, at the library we recommend Barrington Stoke's Super Reader titles especially for dyslexic or struggling readers. Printed in a specially developed font and with books by all the popular authors. They are perfect for anyone to enjoy reading.

#DyslexiaCreates

read! Anytime.
Anywhere.
Anyhow.